

Unit 1: Demonstrate understanding of the labour market
Assessment Objective	Knowledge, Understanding and Skills
Identify different occupational sectors and demonstrate knowledge of national trends
Evaluate the impact of change on industries
Evaluate the impact of change on individuals
Analyse employment opportunities within different sectors
Demonstrate knowledge of factors which influence the location of employers
Demonstrate understanding of the effect of local employment conditions on the community

Unit 2: Use sources of information to research career opportunities
Assessment Objective	Knowledge, Understanding and Skills
Use sources of information on careers to identify and extract relevant information on careers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Careers Adviser, careers centre, library, internet, employers, job centre, job advertisements, people in the workplace Information on jobs...
Evaluate progression opportunities within career areas	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Local, national and international opportunities Progression opportunities Transferability to other career areas... Impact of employment trends within the career area, global
Identify sources of information on specific jobs and analyse most likely sources of information	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sources of information... Paper based/electronic sources Job centre, recruitment agencies ... Informal sources/word of mouth Analysis: relevance to chosen career...
Use sources of information to identify relevant job and demonstrate ability to obtain further information on specific opportunities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sources of information as above Additional information: from the company about the company
Analyse information on specific jobs and identify long and short term implications of undertaking the role	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Job related information... Role within employment situation Progression opportunities with employer and with other related employers